

New York City Department of Education
Office of School Health
Health Education Unit

Goals and Objectives

Suggested Indicators for School Health Programs: HIV Prevention Local Education Agencies are listed in italicized print below each objective.

Goal 1: Strengthen HIV/AIDS/STI education within the coordinated school health education programs.

Objective 1.1. By the end of the fiscal year, the NYC DOE Health Education Unit Comprehensive Health Coordinators will review the annual HIV/AIDS plans for 50% of NYC High Schools.

Indicator: 25

Objective 1.2. By the end of the fiscal year, Comprehensive Health Coordinators will conduct HIV/AIDS/STI trainings for 50% of Regional Health Directors (RHDs) and 50 HS administrators.

Indicator: 6

Objective 1.3. By the end of the fiscal year, Comprehensive Health Coordinators will conduct citywide and/or regional high school HIV/AIDS/STI curriculum trainings for a minimum of 75 teachers.

Indicator: 6

Objective 1.4. By the end of the fiscal year, Comprehensive Health Coordinators will conduct a minimum of four regional comprehensive school health trainings for non-licensed health education teachers to integrate existing HIV/AIDS/STI strategies into the CSHE curriculum.

Indicator: 6

Objective 1.5. By the end of the fiscal year, Comprehensive Health Coordinators and Regional Health Directors will provide technical assistance and support to a minimum of 50 high schools.

Indicators: 1, 3, 4, 7, and 12

Objective 1.6. By the end of the fiscal year, Comprehensive Health Coordinators will provide technical assistance in comprehensive school health education and HIV/AIDS/STI prevention education to a minimum of 25 schools, grades 7-12.

Indicators: 7 and 25 (CHE data)

Objective 1.7. By the end of the fiscal year, Comprehensive Health Coordinators and CBOs will award Be Active in Self-Education (BASE) grants to a minimum of 50 high schools for student-led HIV/AIDS peer education projects.

Indicator: 25

Objective 1.8. By the end of the fiscal year, Comprehensive Health Coordinators will publish and disseminate a minimum of three "HIV/AIDS Update" newsletters.

Indicators: 4 and 25